LOCAL NEWS.

Brief Mention.

A farm wanted—R. E. Baldwin.
High water to-day at 7:34 p. m.
Get Royal shoes large enough or the children will outgrow them.

Mrs. James Snowden of New Haven, who has been visiting friends in Seymour, returned to her home yesterday.
The Misses Callahan of New London have returned home from a visit to Miss Annie E. Morse of 296 Grove street, this city.

Mr. George H. Larkin, who died in West Haven Wednesday night of heart disease, aged fifty-eight, was a brother of Mr. J. E. Larkin of Winsted.

Dr. Wilton E. Dickerman, a graduate of Amherst college and the Yale medical college, and for the last year engaged in hospital practice at the Hartford hospital, has opened an office in Hartford.

J. Jerome Hayes, the well known vocal teacher, who is spending the summer at Harwinton, will return to New Haven September 2 and has secured rooms 26 and 27 in the Hubinger building, where he will give vocal instruction.

All disciples of Isak Walton heretofore have heard of Charlie Green of East Haven River and his piscatorial fame. Charlie's exploits this season in bluefish catching are only excelled now by his success in netting crabs, some fine specimens of which he brought to town yesterday. The crabbing is fine at East Haven River, and Charlie can supply you with boat, nets, bait, etc.

A Fighting Fish.

But the Paradise fish, in addition to being ornamental, has some very interesting ways. The male builds the nest, which is quite right and proper, but he builds it of bubbles. Rather frail building material, you may think, and not apt to endure very long. It does very well, however, for the bubbles forming in the slime which surrounds the eggs are quite lasting, and by constantly adding fresh ones the fish keeps the nest in a fair state of repair. The young are nearly transparent, and floating beneath the bubbles they are quite invisible to their enemies above the water.

From the time the eggs are laid until the young fish are large enough to take care of themselves, their father guards them against their hundreds of enemies beneath the surface, among which is their own mother. This unnatural parent would devour her offspring as greedily as she would a wriggler, were it not for the vigilance of her mate, who takes good care that she does not get an opportunity. Between guarding his children, which are numbered somewhere in the hundreds, and keeping his somewhat slimy nest in repair, he is a very much occupied fish. With a very business-like air he flirts himself about, now rising to get a mouthful of air to release in bubbles below his nest to mend a break, now dashing after and seizing one of his runaway children, or rushing, with a degree of ferocity all out of proportion to his size, upon some finny raider.

But he is utterly depraved himself, and if he gets the chance he will kidnap half a dozen of his neighbor's family to increase his own; so, when the nests are close together, there is a perpetual warfare going on between the proprietors. He is very pugnacious, and there is no discretion coupled with this quality, for he displays as much readiness to attack and devour me, sketching outfit and all, if I approach too closely, as he would a May-fly. But his disposition is not half as bad as that of one of his cousins; for there is a species of the same genus, called Betta pugnax, which is cultivated in Siam for its game and fighting qualities.—Charles B. Hudson in St. Nicholas.

CONNECTICUT JOTTINGS.

NOTABLE EVENTS IN VARIOUS PARTS OF THE STATE.

The Trolley Wire Broke—A Blinding Flash and Loud Report—Excitement in a Bridgeport Car—Rockville's Excitement Yesterday—A Beautiful Baseball Trophy—Against the Wild Man—A Cow's Marvellous Escape—Grocer Blakeman of Derby Fatally Injured—Rev. Mr. Koepchen's Vacation.

Hartford, Aug. 29.—The railroad commission gave a hearing this afternoon on the application of the Rockville Railroad company to take land at Rockville for the widening of the tracks and enlargement of its freight and passenger facilities. The application was opposed by ex-Senator Charles Phelps of Rockville and ex-Congressman Lewis Sperry of this city for the American mills from people of Rockville. That company claim that the taking of the additional land will damage its property.

Last winter the reorganization committee of the New York and New England railroad made arrangements to buy the Rockville railroad, which is a branch road running from its Vernon station to Rockville, about four miles. George A. Talcott, president of the American Mills company, has made application to Judge Shumway of the superior court for an injunction to prevent the Rockville Railroad company from taking the land, which awaits the decision of the railroad commissioners on to-day's hearing. E. D. Robbins of this city, attorney for the New York and New England road, appeared for the Rockville Railroad company.

HANDSOME BASEBALL TROPHY.
Meriden, Aug. 29.—The Meriden Britannia company is making a handsome baseball cup to be played for by the leaders of the Eastern league. The cup is a trophy offered by Albert Steiner of Steiner & Sons, piano manufacturers. The Springfield and Providence teams will undoubtedly be the ones to play for the trophy.

The cup is to be of silver, will stand thirty-five inches high, and its value, $250, is such as to make it worthy the best efforts of every player on each team to have his name inscribed thereon. The design is to be very handsome, the lower portion being worked out in fine form. On the top will stand the figure of a man holding a baseball above his head, and on the ball will rest two bats crossed and the victor's wreath.

COLEBROOK'S WILD MAN.

Winsted, Aug. 29.—Passengers on Hall's stage from Colebrook yesterday afternoon saw an animal cross the highway, leap a fence and then stand on its hind legs. As the stage drew near the animal ran into the woods. The passengers say it was a large gorilla and it is supposed to be the animal that was heretofore reported as a "wild man," as it was seen in the same locality as that where the "wild man" was said to hold forth. The gorilla probably escaped from some circus years ago. During the past winter a gorilla inhabited the woods in South Norfolk and fed on chickens.

"DETECTIVE" ARRESTED.

Hartford, Aug. 29.—George H. Kehrschke, who poses as a "German detective," was fined $50 in the police court to-day for committing a breach of the peace. He made a great disturbance in attempting to arrest a supposed thief.

NEW BRITAIN RAID.

Hartford, Aug. 29.—New Britain's police officers made a raid upon Henry Diering's "temperance saloon" on Curtis street last night and captured a large quantity of liquor. It was found in the barn concealed from view in a room entered by a trap door.

LIQUOR DEALER FINED.

Hartford, Aug. 29.—In the police court to-day Ferdinand Ulrich, proprietor of the Arminy house, was fined $25 and costs for selling whiskey and other liquors when he only had a beer license.

A COW'S PLUNGE DOWN A 37-FOOT DEEP WELL.

Meriden, Aug. 29.—A cow story comes from East Wallingford that is guaranteed to be authentic by Samuel Fairchild, of the firm of Fairchild Bros., the witch hazel distillers, who have an office on State street.
The cow in question belongs to George Francis, the next door neighbor of Mr. Fairchild. On Tuesday morning the animal jumped over a fence and alighted on a lot of boards that had been laid down to cover an old well. The weight of the animal smashed the boards and the cow went plunging down to the bottom of the well—a distance of thirty-seven feet.

The owner of the cow and Mr. Fairchild, as well as others who have been summoned to the scene, supposed the animal had been killed or at least had its legs broken in the wild plunge of thirty-seven feet towards the bowels of the earth.
The cow had to be removed from the well, however, so a lot of tackle was rigged up and rope let down and secured around the cow's horns. After much difficulty, and with the aid of a large force of help, the beast was finally yanked out of the well.

To the surprise of all the animal was alive and apparently whole.
For a short time the cow seemed dazed, but gradually improved, and is now reported as being none the worse for its severe fall.

AERONAUT LEAPS INTO MATRIMONY.

Meriden, Aug. 29.—Daniel A. Barnell, who came east from Omaha early in the season with Prof. Gould, and who has been making balloon ascensions and parachute leaps at Hanover park all summer, was married in New York yesterday to Miss May Griswold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Griswold of South Meriden.

GROCER BLAKEMAN BADLY HURT.

Ansonia, Aug. 29.—William W. Blakeman, a grocer in Derby, with two ladies was thrown from his carriage near the Naugatuck depot last yesterday afternoon, and it is feared his injuries will prove fatal.

He received a blow on the head from which he had not recovered consciousness up to noon to-day. Blakeman has been in the grocery business in Derby for over twenty years, and is well known in the Naugatuck valley. The ladies were only slightly injured.

On Monday next Rev. William Koepchen of Meriden, formerly of New Haven, will leave for Norris, a suburb of Detroit, Mich., taking with him two boys, Otto and William Wenk, sons of one of his parishioners, who are to be placed in the Lutheran Deaf and Dumb institute at that place. The boys have been attending the St. John's parochial school in this city.

Mr. Koepchen's congregation have generously given him a two week's vacation, which he will spend at his former home in Chicago, after his errand at Norris is finished.

ANOTHER BOUNTY CLAIMANT.

The Meriden Journal says: Attorney Danaher will in a few days present to the selectmen the bounty claim of John Carroll, a resident of this city. Carroll originally enlisted on September 1, 1861, in Company A of the Ninth regiment. He was transferred to Company B, and on February 16, 1864, reenlisted in the field for three years. He is accredited to Meriden's quota, but never received any bounty except that paid by the government.

THEY SAW THE FLASH—THE BROKEN TROLLEY WIRE.

Bridgeport, Aug. 29.—Car No. 46 of the Barnum avenue line was going out State street, this morning, at the usual gait. There were half a dozen passengers on the car, which was a closed one. Among the passengers were Mrs. Mary Knubel of 19 Clinton avenue; Mrs. Josephine C. Bolland of 205 Williams street, and a Miss Ward. Just as the car passed the court house there was a report like a thunder clap, followed by several blinding flashes. Motorman Neckenberger had just presence of mind enough left to shut off the power and then he dove back into the car head first.

The trolley wire had parted. The passengers saw the flash and discovered the motorman on the run and they had just one thought left, to get out of the car as quickly as possible. And they did, with results that were damaging to the women. They all three tried to reach the ground first and the results was bruises and bumps.

Mrs. Knubel fell on her back and struck her head on the hard asphalt, raising a big lump and shaking her up considerably. Mrs. Bolland was much hurt about the left hip and she was unable to walk without assistance. Miss Ward appeared to be injured the most, but her suffering was due more to the shock than any actual injury. A few scratches on the arm were the only evident marks. Motorman Neckenberger was also somewhat hurt. He not only received a shock from the current, but his hands were slightly burned by the flash which followed as the broken wire struck the car.

Persons who witnessed the accident say that for an instant the whole car looked a mass of the blue light. The male passengers got off all right. They noticed something of a shock, but nothing to cause them great alarm. A big crowd quickly gathered and soon became deeply interested in the coil of wire which lay on the ground at the northeast corner of Broad and State streets. It spluttered until the repair men came along.

AFTER NOTES OF THE DRUMMER TOURNAMENT.

Meriden, Aug. 29.—The eighteen members of the East Hampton Drum corps left Terrace Garden early yesterday afternoon in a huff and returned to their homes in East Hampton without competing in the drumming contests. The reason they gave for this action was that they had to pay for their dinner at the garden.

At former conventions this expense has always been borne by the association, but at a recent meeting of the officers a deficit was reported in the treasury, consequently it was voted that when the convention was held in Meriden the members of the various corps would have to pay for their own meals.

Meriden won decided honors in the contests. There were seven entries in the modern drumming class and first prize, a toilet set, was captured by the Y. M. T. A. B. corps of this city. The Silver City corps won second prize, a box of cigars.

The Bunnells of New Haven were awarded first prize in ancient drumming class, while the Meriden Flute band and Douglass corps of Middletown were tied for second place. The latter won on the draw off.

The Bolden colored corps of Hartford won the prize for drumming without files. They also were winners in playing off a tie from last year with the Bunnells of New Haven in fancy drumming.

At the sociable at city hall in the evening much interest was taken in the baton swinging contest. There were five entries: Walter Brunelle and William Rosebush of this city, Drum Majors Shanahan and Shea of Waterbury, and Drum Major Newton of Hartford. All the contestants gave a clever exhibition, but the judges could not decide between Brunelle and Newton. Each was then allowed three minutes on the second round. The judges finally awarded the verdict to Walter Brunelle and he was presented with the medal, which is valued at $10.

STATE WORKMEN'S CONVENTION.

New Britain, Aug. 29.—The state convention of United Workmen will be held in this city on October 16. There will be 3,000 members present, and the parade will include seven companies of the Loyal Legion. Governor Coffin will attend. Lieutenant Colonel Thompson of this city has been appointed grand marshal of the parade of the order to be held in Philadelphia September 10, in observance of the order's semi-centennial.

THE LEE SMALL BORE RIFLE.

Washington, Aug. 29.—A contract was signed at the navy department yesterday between Captain Samuel C. Lemly, judge advocate general of the navy, and John P. Lee of Hartford, Conn., by which for a bonus of $20,000 the department is given the right to manufacture the Lee small-bore rifle, recently adopted for the small arms of the naval service. Before the contract is completed by the payment of the money Mr. Lee will be obliged to give a quit claim of the Lee Arms company, which has also the right of manufacture, or an indemnity bond of $20,000 that the company will not continue to make the weapon.

C. P. KELLOGG SECRETARY.

Hartford, Aug. 29.—The state board of charities to-day elected Charles P. Kellogg of Waterbury secretary in place of Miss Mary Hall of this city, declined. Mr. Kellogg is a son of General S. W. Kellogg, and a graduate of Yale, class of 1890.

WATERBURY ODD FELLOWS.

Waterbury, Aug. 29.—The general convention, which has in charge the dedication of the new Odd Fellows' building on October 15 held a meeting last evening in the Citizens' bank building. Reports from the various sub-committees were received. A proof of the official medal was presented to the committee. It will be made of aluminum, and will be mounted on blue ribbon. It will be two inches wide. On the obverse side will be a cut of the new Odd Fellows' building and the words, "Waterbury, Connecticut." On the reverse will be the words, "Fiftieth Anniversary and Dedication of the Odd Fellows' Building, 1845-1895." The three links, the emblem of the order, will also be on the medal.

The invitations to the dedicatory exercises were sent out about a week ago, and responses accepting the invitation have already been received from a large number of the lodges of the state.

The work on the building is being hurried along, and the committee is working hard to get everything in readiness for the dedication day.

H. W. Pope of this city was one of the speakers yesterday at the summer convention of Christian Workers being held at Cheshire.
